This is a fictional example for educational purposes, not an official or pre-approved application. Your DS-160 answers must reflect your own circumstances. Do not copy the sample answers unless they are independently true for you.

Questions applicants commonly get stuck on

How this fictional applicant answered, why, and what to check for your own form. Answer for your own situation, which may differ.

2.3 Are you a permanent resident of a country/region other than your country/region of origin (nationality) indicated above? — No

Why Faisal is a citizen of Pakistan only. He lives in the UAE on a residence visa tied to his job, and he answers No to permanent residence in another country.

For your application This question asks about permanent residence, not about where you live today. If you are not sure whether your status abroad counts, ask the embassy or consulate where you will apply before you answer.

1.3 Full Name in Native Alphabet — فیصل احمد قریشی

Common questions about this example

Can I apply in the UAE if I am not a citizen?
The DS-160 asks where you will apply, and you can choose a U.S. embassy or consulate in the country where you live, as Faisal chooses Dubai. Check that post's website first: each post sets its own rules for applicants who are not its citizens.

Which address do I give, the one in the UAE or the one in Pakistan?
The form asks for your home address, where you live now. Faisal gives his apartment in Dubai, and his phone numbers and employer are in the UAE too.

Do I need to write my name in Urdu?
The form asks for your full name in your native alphabet. If your name is written in Urdu, enter it that way. If not, tick Does Not Apply.
