E-Visa: Business Profile

The U.S. Enterprise

This whole section is about the business in the United States that your E visa is based on: the company you have invested in (E-2) or that carries on the trade (E-1). Give its full legal name as registered in the U.S., not the name of your employer or parent company abroad.

Name of U.S. Enterprise, Business, or Company *

MENDOZA FOODS USA LLC

Type of Business Enterprise

Corporation covers incorporated companies, including LLCs. Choose Subsidiary if the U.S. business is owned by a company abroad, and Branch/Liaison Office if it is an office of the foreign company itself rather than a separate U.S. company. Privately Owned is a sole proprietorship. Joint Venture is a business owned jointly by two or more companies.

E-Visa: Investment

Type of Investment

Choose how the investment was made. Creation of a New Business means you started the business yourself; you will be asked what it cost to set up. Purchase of an Existing Business means you bought a business that already existed; you will be asked the purchase price. Continuation of an Existing Business means the business you invested in is carrying on, for example when renewing an E visa; you will be asked its current fair market value. Choose Does Not Apply only if you are an employee of the enterprise rather than an investor.
